The Birthday of Washington.

Meeting of the Veterans of 1812.

The Presentation Ceremonies at Independence Hall.

Postponement of the Parade General Observance of the Day.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

Very different is the weather of to-day compared to that of the 22d of February of last year. The late snow-storm has blocked our streets and roadways, and rendered them almost impassable. The military who were to have paraded this afternoon took a critical view of the streets, and, like sensible men, concluded to postpone their march until the 4th of July.

The veteran soldiers of 1812 held their regular meeting at the Supreme Court room at 10 o'clock this morning. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. Peter Hays to the Chair. The principal business of the meeting was the unanimous passage of the resolutions submitted by the Executive Committee. They were read by the Secretary, Mr. John W. Frick. Previous to reading the resolutions, the President made a few remarks about a petition remonstrating against the repealing of an act of the 30th of March, 1862, entitled "An Act to provide for the payment of annuities to the soldiers of the War of 1812, and to their widows. The number of applicants under that act will be about 2000.

Resolved, That, grateful to Almighty God for His goodness in over a year, the meeting of the soldiers of the War of 1812 residing in Philadelphia and in vicinity, though in greatly diminished numbers, once more unite with their fellow-citizens in celebrating this national holiday in commemoration of the birth of our country's first President, the father of his country, one of the purest and the most disinterested patriots that ever lived; whose life, public and private, was a model worthy of imitation to all succeeding generations; and whose words of solemn admonition and almost prophetic warning never in any age will be forgotten by the lover of our free institutions than at the present moment.

Resolved, That we again urge the Congress of the United States to pass bill No. 83, granting pensions to the Soldiers of the War of 1812, and to their widows on the file of the House of Representatives, even if restricted as to its terms, in sections 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Provincial Assembly of Pennsylvania to the Continental Congress, and the resumption of their possession by the Assembly after the Congress had fled to New York—is too familiar to you all to need any further explanation. The property and times of this presentation for the purpose indicated, will at once suggest itself to all minds. We have endeavored to preserve for the preservation of these precious memorials that the hall in which the Declaration of Independence was signed, and in which the illustrious Hancock occupied this very chair?

When the table was set in this Hall, were gathered the leading patriots who signed the Declaration of Independence, and the names of these patriots, who signed the Declaration of Independence, are carried back in imagination to the times that tried men's souls, and we recall to our minds the noble and heroic spirits of the great and wisest deliberative and representative body that the world has ever known.

DARING ROBBERY AND ATTEMPTED MURDER.—NINE MEN MAKE THREE ESCAPE WITH $4000 IN MONEY.—Mr. George Allhouse, book-keeper of the firm of Allhouse & Foch, in Walnut street, below Fourth, left this city on Friday last for Mahanoy Valley, where the firm's mines are located, for the purpose of paying off the lands em- bry loan that was contracted with him $17,000. While in the office at Mahanoy, after having prepared each man's money, and placed the different amounts in envelopes, with the name on it, four men came in and asked for work. Five others were stationed outside, guarding the different avenues leading to the office. The men who desired work were informed that no more hands were needed. They then attempted to get over the railing into the counting-room. Mr. George Allhouse told them they had no business there, and immediately drew his revolver and fired at him and Mr. Foch, severely wounding the former in the hip. Ten shots in all were fired. Mr. Allhouse tried to shoot the robbers, but they were so quick that minutes closed with one of them, and in the struggle was very badly cut about the head with a razor. The robbers then returned to the clerks, ran out of the office, and gave the alarm by screaming. He was immediately met by one of the men outside and fired at, the ball striking him in the chest, and he fell to the ground, which was heard by some men at the "breaker," which is some two hundred yards from the office. The robbers then returned to the office, and caused the robbers to decamp, taking with them about $4000, which was all that was lying on the counter. Mr. Allhouse was conveyed to his residence in Reading where his wounds were dressed, and at last accounts he was doing well.

AN ATTEMPTING TO COMMIT SUICIDE.—Officer Shivers yesterday arrested, on a charge of complicity in the robbery of Moore's liquor store, a man by the name of Samuel R. Kempf, aged 35, at his residence, No. 12 1/2 Arch street. He was taken to the Fifth District Station House, and during last night attempted to commit suicide by swallowing a quantity of arsenic, which he had hidden in a pocket-knife. When the knife was taken away by an officer, Kempf regretted that it had not been larger, so that he could have put an end to his life. He was confined in a cell, and his relatives are endeavoring to prevent such an occurrence.

OBTAINING LIQUOR UNDER FALSE PRETEXTS.—Two Germans, named Thomas Haw and Charles Resner, residing at No. 12 1/2 Arch street, and forty-eight, entered a liquor store on Coates street and ordered two gallons of liquor, saying that they were in a short of money, and would pay for it. The clerk gave them one gallon, and kept a close watch on their movements when they went out. They stepped into another store near by, and sold the liquor, and then returned to their home, making off without any apparent intention of paying the score, when they were arrested at the residence of the owner, by Officer Fisher. Alderman Toland committed them to answer in default of bail.

BEFORE ALDERMAN BEITLER, at the Central Station to-day, George Donnelly, residing at Tenth and Catharine, was arraigned upon the charge of assault and battery, with intent to kill, in the case of William Miller, a German, who was taken to the Fifth District Station House, and during last night attempted to commit suicide by swallowing a quantity of arsenic, which he had hidden in a pocket-knife. When the knife was taken away by an officer, Kempf regretted that it had not been larger, so that he could have put an end to his life. He was confined in a cell, and his relatives are endeavoring to prevent such an occurrence.

CHARGE OF HARBORING STEALING.—William Van Club, aged 27, was arrested at his residence, No. 154 South street, for the larceny of a saddle, the value of which was $100. He was taken to the Fifth District Station House, and during last night attempted to commit suicide by swallowing a quantity of arsenic, which he had hidden in a pocket-knife. When the knife was taken away by an officer, Kempf regretted that it had not been larger, so that he could have put an end to his life. He was confined in a cell, and his relatives are endeavoring to prevent such an occurrence.

This has been the second time that Amos Ridge has been caught in the same act. He was committed to answer at 10 o'clock.
